

Grants for Young Researchers

Selection criteria for the 10 AIDA Grants for Young Researchers

During the General Assembly of AIDA 12, held in Aix Marseille University, in May 2017, it was decided that 10 Grants for Young Researchers will be disbursed, as usual, each amounting to €200, for covering some of the expenses of attending AIDA 13, which will be held at Akaki Tsereteli State University (Kutaisi, Georgia), in June 2019. The candidates can only apply for a grant after receiving the acceptance notification for their abstracts from the Organizing Committee of AIDA 13, Akaki Tsereteli State University (during December 2018).

The applicants will be selected taking into consideration the following:

1. Age: maximum 35 years old, priority being given to the youngest.
2. The applicant should be enrolled in a Master or PhD program with a project in Arabic Dialectology.
3. Their respective country of residence average income per capita, priority being given to the lowest.
4. The priority is given to any applicant who hasn't received a grant before. If the number of the applicants of this category is less than the number of grants, the Executive Committee can take into consideration also the applicants who have received one before, with the condition that they published the paper presented in the AIDA conference in its Proceedings or in a peer reviewed journal.
5. The financing request will be addressed to the General Secretary of AIDA, Dr. Liesbeth Zack e.w.a.zack@uva.nl using the Application Form.
